

INFORMATION ABOUT END-OF-YEAR EXAMS

Alchemy: For the final exam in Alchemy, you will be asked to brew a potion.

- To get a C, you must brew a deadly Poison: the ingredients are Ashes and Lizard Scales.
- To get a B, you must brew the Tongue-Tied Potion: the ingredients are Ashes and Powdered Dragon Fang.
- To get an A, you must brew a Healing Potion: the ingredients are Lizard Scales and Moon Beam Dust.

[After the Alchemy final, each student will receive an item card with the potion they made – with only one use.]

Transformation: For the final exam in Transformation, you will be asked to transform a pencil into something else, and back again.

- To get a C, you must transform the pencil into a tree: you will need a wand. Say the incantation, “Calamus Nemus!”
- To get a B, you must transform the pencil into a lizard: you will need a wand and Lizard Scales, then say the incantation, “Calamus Lacerta!”
- To get an A, you must transform the pencil into a phoenix: you will need a wand, Ashes, and a Feather. Say the incantation, “Calamus Incentor!”

Foretelling: For the final exam in Foretelling, everyone will meditate for 30 seconds. Then, you must correctly guess the number, one through five, that the professor will choose.

- If the number you guess is two away from that which the professor chose, you will receive a C.
- If the number you guess is one away from that which the professor chose, you will receive a B.
- If the number you guess is the same number that the professor chose, you will receive an A.
